Approval of the 2019 Budget

Council Member Smith stated for the sake of transparency since she is a member of the Museum Board the appropriation that was added in the park's budget was added to help with the maintain of the museum stated she was not getting any personal gain from the addition. The park still owns the building but the utilities and upkeep has been done mostly by the Museum Board through donations.

Council Member Babb questioned the 14% increase in the park's total budget and the extra appropriation for the sports complex including salary and benefits.
